

1860-006 Chancery Cause: Benjamin D. Martin vs. James B Colson
Lee Co.

CA-Debt

To The Worshipful, the County Court of Lee, County Virginia, in Chancery sitting.

The Bill of Complaint of Benjamin D. Martin of said County, respectfully represents, that at the November Term of the County Court of said County, judgment was confirmed in favor of Your Orator, against one James Colson, of said County, for $149.38 with interest from the 15th day of February 1858, and the Costs, amounting to $6.51 ^{a copy of which is herewith filed, marked & made part of this bill}. On said judgment, an execution issued against the goods and chattels of said Colson, which has been returned by the Sheriff of said County, ^{a copy of which execution is herewith filed, marked & made part of this bill} no property found. Your Orator knows of no personal property, belonging to said Colson, out of which said execution could be satisfied.
~~But~~ ~~But~~ ~~alleges & believes~~ ~~that~~ said Colson is possessed of and owns a tract of about ^{as shown} ^{the said} acres, being the tract on which he resides, And Your Orator alleges & believes that five years rent of said land would not pay said debt, principle, interest & cost.

Your Orator being without an adequate remedy at Common law, and relievable only in Equity, prays therefore that said James Colson be made a party Defendant to this bill, and be required to answer this bill fully & completely on oath, that on a hearing of this Cause, a decree be rendered in favor of Your Orator, subjecting said land to be sold to satisfy said debt, principle, interest and Costs, and also the Costs of this suit; And that You would render to Your Orator such other & further relief, as may be suited to his Case and Consistent with Equity & good Conscience And he will ever pray &c.
